Sewing Enterprise Ltd originally started as a local group of women who had the opportunity to learn sewing skills through training courses running at the Linc Centre, supported through organisations like Poplar HARCA and Workers Education Association.

Mona Nashed, the Tutor and Managing Director, has given so many years teaching local women to gain new skills and reach potential they never realised they could achieve. Mona who has claimed awards for "Tutor of the Year" along with other community awards, is the driving force behind the Sewing Enterprise Ltd which has been running now for 13 years, for the community and with the community.
